However, the search for hidden treasures can often lead to disappointment when the surface is too shallow. Theros is a powerful weapon, its power to be underestimated.

The ocean's influence is felt in the way it shapes the land, carving out valleys and creating the coastline.

Also had its own moments when in Dirge's words the "white plume had disappeared forever in the infinite of the azure skies above." But this loss was not felt, for in some places the "plume" had so quietly assumed its place on the shore of the ocean. The ocean, dear dark side of the earth, once the force of violence that very same power of placidness calmly hidden in the depths of the heart...

escolher um pêrgamo poder das traves que poderia ser visto a baleia branca. As cores amarelas e vermelhas podiam também ser vistas, fosse a própria cor da natureza, fosse a própria cor da vida. A baleia branca era um símbolo de pureza e inocência, e a presença dela na Terra era um símbolo da beleza e da simplicidade.

Moby Dick, que havia se tornado o guia da harpa, foi então pedido a um lugar desconhecido. O guia da harpa, uma entidade misteriosa e imortal, havia sido o guia de Moby Dick desde o início de sua jornada. Eles viajaram através de um mistério de escuro e escuridão, mas o guia da harpa continuou a guiar Moby Dick, oferecendo-lhe a tramuntana da vida.

Depois de um ano de viagens, Moby Dick e o guia da harpa finalmente chegaram ao lugar onde a harpa havia sido criada. O lugar era místico e misterioso, e a harpa estava lá, esperando por eles. Moby Dick e o guia da harpa entraram na harpa, e o mundo ao redor mudou.

Daquele momento em diante, as forças naturais conviviam num equilíbrio constante e a bela natureza conhecia em maior tempo e espaço e não somente na forma da vida e morte. Tudo aqui parecia obedecer a uma força imanente, superior aparentemente benéfica, mas nunca sempre impecável.

Moby Dick, agora uma força imanente, decidiu manter a trama da vida em constante mudança, mas nunca sem implacável.

As histórias que haviam sido contadas agora eram parte de uma nova era, e a bela natureza mudou em um mundo novo e diferente. As tramas da vida e da morte, agora, nunca mais foram as mesmas.

E assim, a harpa da bela natureza continuou a cantar uma nova melodia, e o mundo mudou.

Esse era o mundo de uma nova era, e a bela natureza convivia em um equilíbrio constante, mas nunca sem implacável.

Essa era, porém, nunca sem implacável.
El mundo es un pantíón de culturas. El arte es lo que nos diferencia y no nos une. El arte es lo que nos hace humanos. El arte es lo que nos hace nosotras y nosotros. El arte es lo que nos hace ser lo que somos.
